Van Lanschot Kempen strengthens business development team in France with senior appointment

Amsterdam/Paris, 15 May 2024

Van Lanschot Kempen Investment Management today announces the appointment of Philippe Bigeard as Director Business Development France. Philippe Bigeard will focus specifically on serving institutional investors in France and has joined the company on May 1st.

This appointment represents an important step in the European growth plans, ambitions and presence of Van Lanschot Kempen. The business development team in France will consist of Isabelle Foy and Philippe Bigeard, with the goal of continuing to develop Van Lanschot Kempen's product offering and reinforcing its position within the French market.

Philippe Bigeard has worked the past five years as Managing Director at TOBAM, responsible for business development in France and Monaco. Before that, he worked in various sales positions for CACEIS, where he was responsible for institutional clients in France for 10 years in his last role as Sales Director. Philippe brings twenty-seven years of experience in the financial sector.

Loes Wingers, Head of Investment Strategies Sales, Investment Management Clients: "We are delighted to have Philippe Bigeard joining the team to further strengthen our growth in France. Philippe's extensive experience and deep knowledge of the French institutional market, along with his valuable network, will help us increase our footprint in France. This appointment reflects Van Lanschot Kempen's commitment to growth and expansion within Europe, with a specific focus on the French market."
